

FLOATS THE DARK SHADOW

Fiction, literary mystery
Publication date: September 10, 2012
Price: $26.00/$16.00/4.99
Size: 6 x 9
388 Pages

Author: Yves Fey

CASEBOUND: 978-1-937356-20-0
TRADE: 978-1-937356-21-7
KINDLE: 978-1-937356-22-4

Available from: Ingram Book Group,
Baker and Taylor

www.BearCatPress.com/
[BearCatPress@gmail.com/](mailto: BearCatPress@gmail.com/)

FLOATS THE DARK SHADOW is a literary mystery set in the dynamic and decadent world of Belle Époque Paris. Aspiring artist Theodora Faraday and Detective Michel Devaux clash in their search for a mysterious killer who has already claimed too many children. Classic detection and occult revelation lead Michel and Theo through the dark underbelly of Paris. Following the maze of clues they discover he murderer believes he his the reincarnation of the most evil serial killer in the history of France-Gilles de Rais.

Yves Fey has an MFA in Creative Writing from Eugene Oregon, and a BA in Pictorial Arts from UCLA. She has read, written, and created art from childhood. A chocolate connoisseur, she's won prizes for her desserts. Her current fascination is creating perfumes. She's traveled to many countries in Europe and lived for two years in Indonesia. She currently lives in the San Francisco area with her husband and three cats. Writing as Gayle Feyrer and Taylor Chase, she previously published unusually dark and mysterious historical romances.

P.O. Box 642491, San Francisco, CA. 94164